

Your party at the University and Literary Club...

The University and Literary Club (UniLit) is a magnificent Georgian building situated in Berkeley Square, at the top of fashionable Park Street in the heart of Bristol.

Whatever kind of party you are planning, be it a big birthday party with a disco, a christening celebration complete with entertainer for the older children, an office Christmas party with mock casino, or simply a quiet relaxed family party; you have come to the right place.

Our standard party rooms are situated on the first and second floors, reached by a stunning Georgian staircase, top-lit by a magnificent glass cupola. However, if your party is on a Saturday or Sunday you can also make use of the members' rooms on the ground floor. These offer an additional bar and a beautifully furnished and relaxing lounge for those quiet moments.

We pride ourselves on our personal and flexible service and will work with you to ensure you have an event to remember!

The air-conditioned Cabot suite, complete with adjoining bar, is on the first floor. The main room is partially split by Georgian archways and this enables you to use the space in a variety of ways. For example using one half for an informal buffet and the other as a dance floor - in this case you are limited to a maximum of 120 people.

Alternatively the whole room may be arranged to seat up to 72 if you are planning a sit-down dinner.

Our smaller rooms on the second floor may be booked for more intimate functions, or you may choose to use them in addition to the Cabot suite if you are planning extra entertainment.

We have a splendid wine list and offer a variety of menu options. If you would like to be seated you may have a carved buffet or a traditional three course meal. Or if you prefer the idea of everyone mingling we offer a great selection of food for an informal buffet.

Whatever you decide you are sure to have a great party – we look forward to welcoming you to the club!
